

Breakfast Time

(Words and Music by Mark Wesling and Dana A. Zbozien)

Intro E G A B

E G

Hey, little pancake, watcha gonna do

A B

You've got the whole day in front of you

E G

You've been snoring all morning, you'll be giggling till noon

A B

Let ask your teddy bear if he has any thoughts for you

F C

He says move left, move right, wiggle those toes

G C

You've got to move your arms if you really want to go

F C

You can blink your eyes and put your feet on the floor

G C

And stretch your muscles and walk right through that door

D A

'Cause it's breakfast time and Mommy's made for you

G A

Some scrambled eggs and some yummy orange juice

D A

With some sausage on the side and a stack of pancakes

G A

And a bowl of frosted flakes, aren't you glad you're awake

F C

So let's think of all the things that you'll do today

G C

All the people you'll see, all the games you'll play

F C

Maybe you'll have a chance for something nice to do

G C

If you see that someone is blue

D A

So put on your socks and tie up your shoes

G A

And brush your teeth real good 'cause they're important, too

D A

Put on your coat and button it up real tight

G A D

And don't forget your gloves 'cause it's cold outside
